

180Degrees
CONSULTING

Consultant - Position Description

As a Consultant you will be part of a team of typically 5-6 members, with two Team Leaders that jointly lead the team. Teams are assigned a non-profit organisation, to help them solve business issues ranging from marketing to funding, in order to improve their efficiency and social impact. Consultants will be required to work both independently and with their team members to find solutions for the client.

Key Characteristics

Our Consultants should have:

- Genuine interest in not-for-profits and social entrepreneurship.
- Genuine interest in consulting
- A professional manner and sound work ethic.
- Proven excellence in communication, organisational and teamwork skills.
- Ability to critically evaluate problems to find potential solutions.
- Time to dedicate to 180 Degrees Consulting (4-6 hours per week).
- Status as a currently enrolled student at The University of Melbourne.

Key Tasks

Our Consultants are expected to:

- Attend all 180DC events and training sessions.
- Attend weekly team meetings and contribute to discussions.
- Complete weekly tasks that are assigned by the Team Leaders to meet the expectations of the client.
- Take part in deconstructing the problem the client is facing, researching any necessary information, forming solutions and presenting their findings to the client.
- Meet with the client and mentor on a few occasions.
- Actively contribute to producing one or more deliverables such as consulting reports and/or presentations for the client.